

ACECO NADA's Hole-In-One Insurance Program

Hole-in-one insurance is a necessity for any organization sponsoring a successful golf event. Big prizes attract more players and participation—with ACECO hole-in-one coverage, you can offer a substantial grand prize to any golfer who makes a hole-in-one on the designated target hole. All policies do not offer equal protection. That's why it's important for you to purchase your coverage from ACECO, the hole-in-one insurance available exclusively to NADA members.

Reasons to Choose ACECO:

- Experience and Reliability - Insuring hole-in-one golf needs for NADA members is all we do. When your name and reputation are connected with a golf event, you need an insurance partner you can trust — one who understands your business and goals.
- Prompt Quotes & Application Processing – Have a tournament tomorrow? No problem! You'll get a written quote the same day you contact us, and telephone confirmations are only a phone call away.
- Low Premiums - Our low group rates will save you 20%-25% on your hole-in-one insurance premiums. In the rare case you find a cheaper premium, send us the quote and we'll beat the price by 10%!
- Unlimited Target Hole Reimbursement - With ACECO, each target hole-in-one receives a prize – no limit!
- Flexible Yardage Requirements - We'll insure any hole longer than 130 yards for men and 110 yards for women. The longer the hole, the lower the premium.
- Flexible Prize Valuation - We reimburse prize value, not the prize itself, and we quote in $100 increments.
- Customized Promotional Signs - Our large promotional signs create great visibility for your brand. We provide a reusable set of three custom signs with your logo for each target hole. Each includes a photo of the prize!
- Bonus Prize Packages - Included in the target hole insurance premium is our Silver Bonus prize package, featuring Ping irons, a Hewlett-Packard digital camera package, and $500 cash.

Your satisfaction and loyalty are our top priority. Our single focus on YOU allows us to partner in creating high-profile events that promote your brand and drive sales.
